

2017 Ontario Personal Tax Credits Return

Protected B when completed

TD1ON

Read page 2 before filling out this form. Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Fill out this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

NEW – In accordance with the 2017 Ontario budget, we removed the "Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older" and we changed the "Caregiver amount."

Last name		First name and initial(s)		Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)		Employee number
Address		Postal code		For non-residents only – Country of permanent residence		Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every person employed in Ontario and every pensioner residing in Ontario can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2017, see "More than one employer or payer at the same time" on page 2.

2. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2017, and your net income from all sources will be $36,969 or less, enter $4,966. If your net income for the year will be between $36,969 and $70,076 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1ON-WS, Worksheet for the 2017 Ontario Personal Tax Credits Return, and fill in the appropriate section.

3. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $1,406, or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

4. Tuition and education amounts (full time and part time) – If you are a student enrolled at a university, college, or educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, fill in this section. If you are enrolled full time, or if you have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled part-time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay for the periods before September 5, 2017, plus $547 for each month before September 2017 that you will be enrolled. If you are enrolled part-time and do not have a mental or physical disability, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay for the periods before September 5, 2017, plus $164 for each month before September 2017 that you will be enrolled part-time.

5. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $8,217.

6. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be $864 or less, enter $8,636. If his or her net income for the year will be between $864 and $9,500 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1ON-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

7. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be $864 or less, enter $8,636. If his or her net income for the year will be between $864 and $9,500 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1ON-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

8. Caregiver amount – If you are supporting an infirm eligible dependant (aged 18 or older), whose net income for the year will be $16,401 or less, enter $4,794. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $16,401 and $21,195, and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1ON-WS and fill in the appropriate section. You cannot claim the caregiver amount for a dependant you claimed on line 7.

9. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of his or her age amount, pension income amount, tuition and education amounts, or disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

10. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of his or her disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of his or her tuition and education amounts on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

11. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 to 10.

Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Filling out Form TD1ON

Fill out this form only if you are an employee working in Ontario or a pensioner residing in Ontario and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration;
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed); or
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source.

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1ON, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

- ☐ If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1ON for 2017, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1ON, check this box, enter "0" on line 11 and do not fill in lines 2 to 10.

Total income less than total claim amount

- ☐ Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 11. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, fill in "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
